COLIN ATHLETICS

President's Message

It is an honor to welcome you to Copiah-Lincoln Community College.

Co-Lin has a great tradition of academic and athletic success. The work and determination of our student athletes have reflected positively on our institution in the past and I am confident the tradition of outstanding achievement will continue with our athletes of today.

In recent years our athletic teams have won state and regional championships and participated in NJCAA National Tournaments. This year was no exception as Coach Gwyn Young and the Lady Wolves Basketball Team were the MACJC State Runners-Up, NJCAA Region 23 Champions, and finished in seventh place at the NJCAA National Women's Basketball Tournament.

Since 2000, Co-Lin has produced 26 NJCAA All-Americans in baseball, softball, basketball, golf, and football. We are just as proud of the academic accomplishments of our students. The Women's Tennis Team was the No. 3 NJCAA Academic Team of the Year and the Men's Tennis Team was No. 4. Also finishing in the Top 20 were the Baseball Team (No. 16) and the Women's Soccer Team (No. 17). In 2010, six student-athletes were named NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-Americans and four were named Academic All-Americans. Since 2005, Co-Lin has produced 42 NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-Americans and 42 Academic All-Americans.

I am also proud of the dedication of our coaches. They work tirelessly throughout the year with resources that are very limited compared to other colleges. Nevertheless, they have developed programs that are competitive in every sport. Our coaches also are committed to helping our student athletes achieve their personal, academic and career goals.

Finally, we welcome all teams, fans, coaches, and administrators to our campus. Please enjoy your stay and let us know if we can assist you in any way.

CO-LIN ATHLETICS

Gwyn Young Athletic Director / Women's Head Basketball Coach

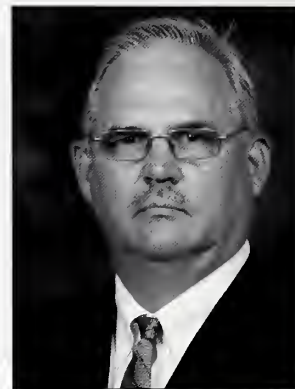

Serving the college as athletic director since 1989, Gwyn Young has been head coach of the Lady Wolves basketball team for 34 years. Since coming to Co-Lin, he has seen his team win title after title and has compiled a record of 748 wins and 222 losses to rank him as the NJCAA Second Winningest Active Coach in the nation and the Winningest Women's Coach in the Mississippi Association of Community/Junior Colleges.

Coach Young has put the Lady Wolves on the map as one of the nation's most premier women's basketball teams. Under Coach Young's direction, the Lady Wolves have accomplished numerous awards including 21 MACJC Regular Season 1st place finishes, 15 MACJC South Division Championships, 20 MACJC State Tournament Appearances, five MACJC State Championships (1993, 1997, 1999, 2002 and 2003) and been runner-up to the MACJC State Champions seven times (1983, 1984, 1998, 2006, 2007, 2009 and 2010). The Lady Wolves have won six NJCAA Region XXIII Championships (1989, 1993, 1997, 2002, 2007, and 2010), been runner-up to the NJCAA Region XXIII Champions nine times (1990, 1996, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2004, 2006, 2009 and 2010), and made six NJCAA National Tournament appearances (1989, 1993, 1997, 2002, 2007, and 2010). Coach Young's team finished the regular season with 31-2 record, 3rd place finish in the final regular season NJCAA Poll and 7th in the 2010 National Tournament by winning the NJCAA Consolation Bracket, 6th in the 2007 National Tournament, 4th in the 1989 National Tournament, and has been consistently ranked each year by the NJCAA Polls.

Coach Young was named Region XXIII Coach of the Year in 1989, 1993, 1997, 2002, 2007, 2010 and MACJC and MAC Coach of the Year in 1993, 2001, 2007, and 2010. The Clarion-Ledger has also recognized him as Coach of the Year for Junior Colleges on numerous occasions.

A graduate of Copiah-Lincoln where he was a standout for the Wolves basketball team, Young was inducted into the college's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997. After graduation from Co-Lin, he attended Mississippi College where he was team MVP and a team captain. Young received his bachelor's degree from Mississippi College and master's degree from the University of Southern Mississippi.

He is married to the former Velesta Smith. They have two grown children Lane and Jessica and three grandchildren, Justin and Mary Gwyn Hynum and Mailey Kate Young.

Glenn Davis

Head Football Coach

Glenn Davis begins his seventh year as head coach of the Wolves. Davis also serves as an instructor in the health and physical education division.

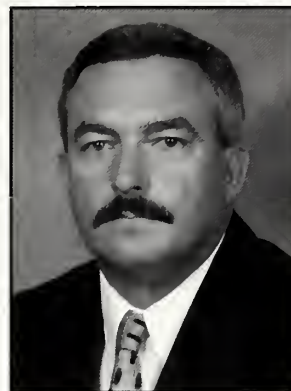

He led the Wolves to a 21-0 shutout victory over the Georgia Military Bulldogs in the 2006 Sea Island Company Golden Isles Bowl Classic. The Wolfpack finished the 2006 season with a 9-3 record, ranked No. 6 in the final NJCAA poll, MACJC South Division Champions and State Runner-Up.

Davis previously served at Co-Lin as offensive coordinator from 1995-96. During those two years, he helped lead the team to a 15-5 overall record.

Davis is a 1982 graduate of Delta State University where he was a three-year letterman as a defensive back and outside linebacker for the Statesmen. His other coaching stints include offensive coordinator at South Natchez High School (1982-85), graduate assistant at Mississippi State (1986-87), defensive backs and wide receivers coach at the University of North Alabama (1988-91), and quarterbacks, running backs, and wide receivers coach at Holmes Community College (1992-94). From 1997-2003 he served as running backs coach at Mississippi State University under former head coach Jackie Sherrill.

Under Davis' tutelage, the Bulldogs lead the Southeastern Conference in rushing in 2000 averaging 193.8 yards per game and ranked third in 1998 averaging 172 yards per game. He mentored Dicenso Miller to Mississippi State's sixth-ever, 1,000-yard season in 2000 (1,005 yards) and James Johnson to the fourth and fifth-ever, 1,000-yard campaigns in 1997 (1,069 yards) and 1998 (1,383 yards).

He and his wife Minta, are the parents of two children, Ann Shelby and Micah.

Drew O'Daniel

Offensive Line Coach

Drew O'Daniel begins his third year as offensive line coach for the Wolfpack. He spent three seasons at Western Carolina University overseeing the offensive line while working with the offensive line and tight ends. At WCU, O'Daniel coached offensive linemen Kevin McAlmont, Wendell Singletary, and Marcus Thomas, all who have signed NFL free agent contracts. In 2005, Linden Ryan and McAlmont received All-Southern Conference honors. The Catamount Offensive Line paved the way for 2006 All-Southern Conference running back Darius Fudge who was the sixth 1,000-yard rusher in WCU history. Fudge eclipsed the 1,000 yard mark versus the eventual National Champion Florida Gators at the Swamp.

Prior to WCU, O'Daniel spent the 2004 season in his second stint at the University of North Carolina, working with player development and recruiting. He spent the 2003 season at North Carolina Central University, where he coached the offensive line. Between his jobs in the state of North Carolina, O'Daniel served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Texas (2001-02), where he earned his Master of Education in 2002. O'Daniel worked with the offensive line and tight ends with the Big XII South champion Longhorns. While at Texas, he worked with All-Americans Derrick Dockery (Washington Redskins) and Mike Williams and current NFL tight ends Bo Scaife (Tennessee Titans) and Davis Thomas (New England Patriots).

O'Daniel's first stint with the North Carolina Tar Heels came over three seasons (1998-2000), assisting the Tar Heel football program as an offensive graduate assistant (offensive line) and as assistant director of video operations.

He got his start in coaching as a student assistant at Florida State University where he was a fullback for the nationally-ranked Seminoles (1995-97). O'Daniel received his B.S. in biochemistry and his M.S. in chemistry at FSU in 1998. A native of Gulf Breeze, Florida., O'Daniel began his collegiate career at Louisiana State University (1993-94).

FOOTBALL COACHES

Brett Shufelt Defensive Coordinator

Brett Shufelt begins his seventh year as defensive coordinator for the Wolfpack. He also serves as an instructor in the college's social science division.

A graduate of Western New Mexico University, Shufelt received a B.S. degree in movement science. He earned a master's degree in educational administration and a Ph.D. in educational leadership from Mississippi State University.

Shufelt served as a graduate assistant at New Mexico State University (1994-1995) and Mississippi State University (1995-1997). He served as defensive coordinator/linebacker coach at Western New Mexico University (1992-1994). His other coaching stints include Silver City (NM) High School, Amphitheater (AZ) High School, and Sabino (AZ) High School.

Shufelt is married to the former Tracy Britt of Wesson (Co-Lin Class of 1989) and owner of Salon 51 in Wesson. They have one daughter, Mimi.

Calvin Green Special Teams / Secondary Coach

Calvin Green enters his 17th year on the Co-Lin football staff. Green coaches the defense, specializing with the secondary players. Several of the players he's coached have gone on to become NJCAA All-Americans, as well as NCAA Division I signees.

Prior to coming to Co-Lin in January 1994, Green served as assistant defensive back coach at East Mississippi Community College in Scooba under the former Mississippi State All-American and National League standout Tom Goode. Green also served as an assistant at Lawrence County High School.

Green graduated from Monticello High School where he was a three-year letterman as a defensive back. He attended Copiah-Lincoln Junior College as a member of Coach Ray Ishee's 1985 State Champion and East Bowl Champion teams. In 1986, Green was chosen MACJC Most Valuable Defensive Back. He also received All-Region XXIII and All-State honors at defensive back and was selected to play in the MACJC All-Star Game.

He earned a B.S. degree in recreation from Alcorn State University. During his football career at Alcorn, Green earned letterman honors and in 1988 was a member of the "Nation's Best Secondary."

Green also serves as the recreation hall supervisor for the college. He was selected Co-Lin's Outstanding Staff Member in 2009. He is married to the former Falana Armstrong. They are the parents of two children, Farrod and Sabria.

Bill Hemingway

Running Backs Coach

Bill Hemingway begins his second year as a volunteer football coach. He will coach the running backs, kickers, snappers and holders.

Hemingway played high school football in Woodward, Okla. He went on to play for the University of Arkansas. He received his bachelor of business administration from Delta State University. The former Razorback is a member of the A-Club.

His coaching stints include Delta State University, Oklahoma State University, the University of Miami, University of Arkansas-Monticello, Oklahoma Panhandle State University, Paul Quinn College, and Arkansas Baptist College.

Hemingway has worked for Nike select football combines as well as National Football League player camps.

He has played for and coached with several notable coaches including Frank Broyles, Lou Holtz, Jimmy Johnson, Houston Nutt, Pat Jones, Larry Coker, Pete Carroll, Monte Kiffin, Butch Davis and many current college and NFL coaches.

He coached the National College South All-Star Bowl Team and coached and played in major bowl games.

Hemingway is the father of two children, Andrea and Matt, who is in the United States Army.

FOOTBALL COACHES

Brian Moore Women's Soccer Coach

Brian Moore begins his third year as the coach of the women's soccer team. He also serves as the assistant men's coach.

Moore has been involved in youth and high school soccer in multiple roles for the past several years. He has served as president, coach, and referee for the Brookhaven Youth Soccer Organization (BYSO). He is currently serving as director of coaching for BYSO. He has also worked with the MHSAA as a referee for the past six years and achieved "Official of the Year" for the region in 2007.

Moore currently holds a "D" coaching license and states that he plans to continue to pursue additional certification and development in the future.

Moore is married to the former Kristyn Broussard of Berwick, La. They have two children, Sara and Hayden. They reside in Brookhaven and attend The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer where they are both very active. Moore serves as a Vestry member, and member of the finance and recreation committees.

Moore is also active in other projects in the community. He worked on the construction of Kids Kingdom Park and is active in the Brookhaven Little Theatre having served as a former board member.

Trey Woodham Men's Soccer Coach

Trey Woodham begins his second year at the helm of the men's soccer team. He also serves as the assistant coach for the women's team.

A graduate of Centenary College in Shreveport, La., Woodham received a bachelor of science in health and exercise science and is certified to teach secondary education. While at Centenary, he was a three-year starter for the men's varsity soccer team.

After graduation, he spent three years as a physical education instructor at St. Joseph Elementary in Shreveport.

During that time, he also coached at the premiere level for the Shreveport Futbol Club, head women's coach for Captain Shreve High School and Loyola College Prep.

Woodham was named District Coach of the Year twice and City Coach of the Year once.

He has most recently lived in the Jackson area coaching for the Chicago Fire Juniors of Mississippi – winning the U11 Classic League State Championship this year.

Woodham holds a National D coaching license and plan to pursue his master's degree this fall.

He attends St. Francis Catholic Church in Brookhaven.

Zach Breeland makes a kick to the goal.

Dennis Sims

Head Men's Basketball Coach

Dennis Sims enters his 15th year as men's basketball coach at Copiah-Lincoln. Sims serves as an instructor in the health and physical education division.

Under Sims leadership the Wolves have made the MACJC State Tournament finals four out of the last six years. Sims has been named MACJC and Mississippi Association of Coaches Coach of the Year in 1989, 1997, 1999, 2000, and 2005. Sims's teams have won three consecutive South State Tournament Championships from 1998 through 2001, which was the last year it was held. His 1998-1999 team captured the MACJC State Championship.

A native of West Memphis, Arkansas, Sims spent 12 years at Southwest Mississippi Community College in Summit. He guided Southwest to the South State championship in 1989. He also coached 11 years on the high school level, where he won two state and two overall state titles. Sims earned a bachelor of science degree in physical education from the University of Mississippi, and received his master's degree in education from William Carey College.

Sims has four children, Law, Casey, Mary Kathryn, and Mollie.

A graduate of Brookhaven Academy and Copiah-Lincoln Community College, Furr received his bachelor's degree in English with a minor in coaching and sports administration from the University of Southern Mississippi. He received his master's degree from William Carey University in 2008.

Furr spent two years at Brookhaven High School as an assistant to head basketball coach Ronald Hines. He also taught junior and senior level English classes.

Furr and his wife, the former Angela Davis of Monticello, are the parents of a daughter, Amelia. The Furr's reside in Brookhaven and are members of Heucks Retreat Baptist Church.

BASKETBALL COACHES

Keith Case

Head Baseball Coach / Assistant Athletic Director

Keith Case enters his 19th season as the field general of the Wolfpack baseball team and his third year as assistant athletic director. He is also an instructor in the mathematics division.

Case has guided the Wolves to eight National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Regional Tournament appearances and two MACJC State Tournaments. His 1998, 2000, 2001 and 2005 teams won the NJCAA Region XXIII Division II championship and advanced to the NJCAA Central District Tournaments. The 2000 and 2005 teams advanced to the NJCAA Division II World Series in Millington, TN., and finished No. 4 in the Nation.

Case received NJCAA Region XXIII Coach of the Year honors in 1998, 2000, 2001 and 2005. Case received the Louisville Slugger Excellence in Coaching Award in 1998. He was awarded Diamond Baseball Company's Coach of the Year Award in 2000, 2001 and 2005.

During his career, Case has compiled over 572 victories as a head coach. He has guided his teams to conference, division, district, state, and region championships during his 26 years as a head coach. In the last 18 years, Case has been instrumental in placing Co-Lin baseball in the national rankings on the diamond and in the classroom.

The Wolfpack finished in the top 10 academically in 1999, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, and 2007. He has coached five NJCAA All-Americans, seven Distinguished Academic All-Americans, and 10 Academic All-Americans. Seventy-eight former Co-Lin players have gone on to play at four-year colleges and universities and 11 former players have played or are currently playing professionally. Over the last 18 years, 36 former players are now coaching on the high school or collegiate level.

Case holds a bachelor of science degree from Mississippi State University and a master's degree in education from William Carey College. He completed additional studies at Mississippi College and the University of Southern Mississippi.

A native of Tryus, Mississippi, Case is a graduate of Monticello High School. He is married to the former Susan Caffey of Jackson. They have two daughters, Macie and Ras.

Bryan Nobile

Assistant Baseball Coach

Bryan Nobile begins his seventh year as assistant baseball coach after spending 2007-2008 as the head coach of his alma mater, Mississippi Delta Community College.

Prior to coming to Co-Lin, Nobile served as a graduate assistant at Delta State University for two years under head coach Mike Kinnison. His primary responsibility was assisting with the pitching staff. Delta State posted a 102-18 record winning the 2002 NCAA Division II South Region and the 2003 Gulf South Conference Tournament titles during his two seasons as a graduate assistant. The Statesmen played in the NCAA Division II World Series in 2001-2002.

A native of Moorhead, Nobile received his B.S. degree in health, physical education and recreation and his master's degree in education from Delta State University. He also attended Mississippi Delta Community College where he pitched for coach Terry Thompson's Trojans.

As a pitcher for the Statesmen, Nobile was selected All-Gulf South Conference and All-South Region. In 2000, he made 24 appearances with a 1.26 ERA while posting a 2-1 record with seven saves. He also recorded 27 strikeouts and walked just five in 28 2/3 innings of work. His seven saves ranks third on the DSU single season records list.

Nobile also serves as the college's Assistant Dean of Students.

Justin Brewer

Assistant Baseball Coach

Justin Brewer begins his second year as an assistant coach with the Wolfpack. A Meridian native, Brewer is a graduate of Clarkdale High School where he was an All-State selection. He is a graduate of Meridian Community College where he played for current University of Southern Mississippi coaches Michael Federico and Chad Caillet. Brewer was a pitcher on Meridian's back to back 2003-2004 Junior College World Series teams. He played one year of semi-pro baseball with the Thomasville Travelers and attended the semi-pro World Series in Evansville, Indiana.

Brewer graduated from Mississippi State University with a bachelor's degree in arts and sciences with a focus in history and physical education. He served as an assistant coach at Starkville Academy for three years before being the named head coach in 2008. Brewer led the Volunteers to a 15-16 record and was selected as the head coach for the North squad in the Mississippi Private School Association All-Star Game.

He is currently pursuing a master's degree in counseling from the University of West Alabama.

BASEBALL COACHES

Allen Kent

Head Softball Coach

Allen Kent begins his ninth year as head coach of the Co-Lin Lady Wolves softball team. Kent has compiled a record of 240-86 since taking over the program, with a .755 winning percentage. His Lady Wolves have won the MACJC State Championship three out of the last five years.

The 2008 Lady Wolves were NJCAA National Runners-Up, while the 2006 squad earned their way to a third place finish in the NJCAA National Tournament in Normal, Ill. The Lady Wolves won the NJCAA Region 23 and the MACJC State Tournament in 2006 and 2008.

Kent has been voted MACJC and MAC Coach of the Year three times and the NJCAA Region 23 Coach of the Year twice. He has also received two Mississippi Association of Coaches Community College Coach of the Year Awards.

His Lady Wolves have been MACJC South Division Champions in 2004, 2006, 2008, and 2009, while finishing runners-up in 2003 and 2005.

Under Kent's direction, Co-Lin has produced two NJCAA First Team All-Americans, three NJCAA Second Team All-Americans, and nine NJCAA Academic All-Americans.

A 1982 graduate of Brookhaven High School and a 1984 graduate of Copiah-Lincoln Community College, Kent was a two-year starter for the Wolfpack baseball team. He graduated from Mississippi State University. He serves as a deacon at First Baptist Church in Brookhaven.

Kent also serves as the college's Director of Housing. He is married to the former Wanda Gayle Agnor of Magnolia, Mississippi. They are the parents of a son, Colby.

Duane Burt

Assistant Softball Coach

Duane Burt begins his fourth year as an assistant coach for the Lady Wolves softball team, and his fifth year as an instructor of biology and chemistry at Co-Lin.

He is a 1998 graduate of Co-Lin, where he was a member of the baseball team, president of the Eta Omega chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, and a Hall of Fame inductee.

Burt received his bachelor's degree in marine biology, with a minor in chemistry, from the University of Southern Mississippi in 2000. He acquired additional study in marine science at Cornell University. Upon graduating from Southern Miss, he accepted a job as Environmental Manager at a utility engineering and construction firm, which was contracted by AT&T. After two years of environmental work, Burt was emergency certified by the state of Mississippi to teach high school science for two years.

While at Bogue Chitto High School, he was head softball coach. During these two years, he accumulated two District 7-1A Championship titles, one undefeated season within Lincoln County rival teams, and advanced well into the state playoffs in 2002-2004.

When his emergency certification to teach and coach expired in 2004, Burt attended graduate school at the University of Mississippi, School of Pharmacy. In 2006, he received his master of science degree in marine pharmacognosy, or, drug discovery from marine plants and animals.

Burt began teaching science at Co-Lin in the fall of 2006 at the Simpson County Center, and transferred to the Wesson campus during the summer of 2007. He is a member of Calvary Baptist Church in Bogue Chitto, and is married to the former Amy L. Smith of Bogue Chitto.

They are the parents of one son, Brandon, and a daughter, Layla.

Wolfpack cheerleaders qualify for Nationals

The Co-Lin cheerleaders captured second place at the Universal Cheerleading Association's (UCA) Cheer Camp at the University of Alabama this summer. They received superior ribbons each day and were second in cheer, chant, fight song, and second overall. The squad qualifies for National Competition that will be held in January in Orlando, Fla.

Co-Lin cheerleaders have attended the camp the last nine years. They have won numerous awards and trophies year after year.

Cheering at Co-Lin is a year-round sport and requires hard work and dedication. Today's cheerleader possesses a unique combination of athleticism, entertainment and student leadership.

Tryouts are held each April. Current and former Co-Lin cheerleaders practice with the new cheerleaders starting in early March so they can be prepared for tryouts.

In May the new squad travels all over the surrounding counties teaching private camps to junior high cheerleaders. This continues until the middle of July. Each camp lasts three to five days. The cheerleaders also hold Lil Wolf Cheer Camps for elementary students during the year. Participants cheer during home football and basketball games.

The squad practices at least three to four times a week starting in May and continuing until school begins in August.

Former Co-Lin cheerleaders have gone on to cheer at NCAA Division I schools including the University of Mississippi, Mississippi State University, the University of Southern Mississippi, Southeastern Louisiana University, and Delta State University.

BLUE WAVE SHOW BAND

Love is in the air...Blue Wave style

Fall is upon us and students everywhere are returning to campus. At Co-Lin that means new friends, new classes and...romance. Yes, the Blue Wave Show Band examines love, in typical Blue Wave style. As you know, the Blue Wave Show Band usually has a unique twist on its subjects and this year is no exception. The trade mark high energy drill, hot horns, thundering percussion, colorful visuals and just a touch of insanity are all part of this year's package.

The show opens with master of ceremonies Reed Rodgers of Vicksburg, singing the Platters doo-wop favorite "Only You." Then we invite you to "get on board," the O'Jays "Love Train." The Colettes and Color Guard are featured in the Boys Like Girls pop hit, "Love Drunk." But as is often the case, fall semester romance wilts into "Tainted Love." But trust the Blue Wave Show Band to bring us all back together with a classic "sing-a-long."

The drum major for the Blue Wave Show Band is Amber Gibson of Mendenhall. Head Colette is Kim Singletary of Crystal Springs and the captains are Leslie Guyton of Brandon and Candace Laird of Brookhaven. Color guard captain are Danyelle Mott of Monticello. Co-captains are Darla Sellers, Terry and Katelyn White, all of Monticello. The percussion section is led by Jeffrey Brown of Mendenhall. The Blue Wave Show Band is under the direction of R. Shaw Furlow, Chris Warren, Shelley Huskey, Mary Warren and Stanley Stewart, with assistance from Mary Stewart.

Wolfpack looking to fill key positions

The Wolfpack finished the 2009 season with 6-3 record, 4-2 in the South Division, and just one win away from the playoffs. Co-Lin lost a record 17 players to four-year colleges and universities and have a number of key positions to fill this season.

With seven returning lettermen on offense and seven on defensive, head coach Glenn Davis says the success of the 2010 season depends on the leadership of the returning sophomores.

Offensively, Co-Lin will have to replace an experienced line including Darion Smith (University of Alabama Birmingham), Joe Collins (NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American, Samford University), Reed Maddox (Delta State University), Bennie Peoples (Grambling State University), and Julius Magee (Southern University).

Anchoring the 2010 offensive line are sophomores Oscar Johnson of Crystal Springs and Larry Banks of Fayette. Running back Titus Mobley of Groveland, Fla. returns along with quarterback Percy Turner of Fayette and MACJC First Team All-State return specialist/wide receiver Fred Fuller of Hazlehurst.

Expected to make an immediate impact are running back Travaughn Brooks of Crystal River, Fla., offensive lineman Will Ashley of Magee, and linebacker Frank Hunt of Franklin County. Mississippi State transfer Montrell Conner of Monroe, LA, is a welcomed addition to the backfield. Davis will have to replace the entire defensive secondary. Lost to graduation are NJCAA Second Team All-American Dequan Menzie (University of Alabama), Lionel Stokes University of Louisiana-Lafayette), Reggie Hunt (University of Southern Mississippi), and Ryan Williams (Louisiana Tech).

The defense will depend on returning sophomore Jordan Hunt of Franklin County (MACJC Second Team All-State) to lead the young linebackers this season.

Anchoring this year's defensive line are Bo Tillman of Meadville, Terrance Coleman of Mobile, Ala., and Roland Dampeer of Mendenhall.

Lost to graduation are Ken Adams (LSU), Josh Tillman (Louisiana Tech), Donald Langley (Texas Tech), and Kevin Holmes (University of Arkansas-Monticello).

2010 Schedule

Date	Opponent	Location	Time
Sept. 2	Coahoma	Wesson	7:00
Sept. 9	Holmes	Wesson	7:00
Sept. 16	Hinds	Raymond	6:30
Sept. 23	Jones County	Wesson	7:00
Sept. 30	Southwest	Summit	6:30
Oct. 9	Pearl River (HC)	Wesson	5:00
Oct. 16	MS Gulf Coast	Perkinston	3:30
Oct. 21	East Central	Wesson	7:00
Oct. 28	Northeast	Booneville	7:00

Co-Lin faces four teams ranked in the National Junior College Athletic Association's Top 25. The Wolfpack take on No. 25 ranked Coahoma in the season opener on Sept. 2. The No. 19 Jones County Junior College Bobcats visit Stone Stadium on Sept. 23. The Wolfpack will host the No. 13 ranked Pearl River Wildcats for homecoming on Oct. 9 and on Oct. 16, Co-Lin travels to No. 5 Mississippi Gulf Coast.

The Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges (MACJC) has two more teams ranked in the Top 25. Others ranked teams include East Mississippi at No. 7 and Northwest at No. 22.

Talented recruiting class and sophomore leadership will drive the Wolfpack

The Wolfpack look to improve their position in the South Division under second year head coach Trey Woodham.

Co-Lin had a record seven players offered scholarships to four-year institutions. Lost to graduation were Florida Atlantic University signee Ross Smith (MACJC Academic All-State, MACJC All-State), Joseph McKay (NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American, MACJC Distinguished Academic All-State), Eric Duarte, Keith Tardibuono, Jeremy James (NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American, MACJC Distinguished Academic All-State), Ole Miss track signee Hayden Schaub, Wesley MacSorley, and Louisiana College signee Tyler Green. Freshman James Knight opted to transfer to Louisiana College.

A strong nucleus of returning sophomores include midfielder/defender Zach Breland of Perkinston, defender Andrew Rushing and forward Jake Errington, both of Brookhaven; Levi Weeks and Nick Lambert, both of Monticello; Kyle Wester of Mendenhall, Tyler Dunn of Nesbit, and Joey Shelton, of Bude.

"We have a large recruiting class with tremendous potential," said Woodham.

The Wolfpack will sport 17 freshmen on the roster including Christopher Buie, Chase Burge, Matthew Hart, and Jonathan Davey, all of Brookhaven; Anthony Seale of Picayune, Torleone Dismuke and Bertrand Wilson, both of Jackson; Stephen Holden of Jayess, Hunter Foster of Natchez, Justin Hanson of Irvington, AL; Ryan Weaver of Terry, Lee Brown of Hazlehurst, Spencer Taylor and Will Rouse, both of Bude; and Rodrigo Silva of Curitiba, Brazil.

"The sophomores are really taking control of this year's team," Woodham said. "Although we have a much stronger class of freshmen as far as quality players, this season's success will depend on the leadership provided by this group of sophomores."

Looking at the tough South Division, Southwest Mississippi returns a very solid team with a quality recruiting class. They are expected to challenge perennial powerhouse Mississippi Gulf Coast. Jones County and Pearl River are also expected to push for a playoff spot. They have solid recruiting districts and quality returning sophomores.

Woodham has a wealth of experience as a player for Centenary College and coach at the premiere level for the Shreveport Futbol Club, head women's coach for Captain Shreve High School and Loyola College Prep.

He was named District Coach of the Year twice and City Coach of the Year once.

He has most recently coached the Chicago Fire Juniors of Mississippi – winning the U11 Classic League State Championship.

Woodham will also serve as the assistant coach for the women's team.

Lady Wolves honored, expectations high

For the second consecutive year, the Lady Wolves received the Tom Shepherd Award for Sportsmanship. They also excelled in the classroom as they were the NJCAA's No. 17 Academic Team of the Year.

Nagging injuries proved to be costly as the Lady Wolves struggled through a rebuilding year under second year head coach Brian Moore.

Lost to graduation were Lindsey Duckworth (MACJC Academic All-State), Whitney Reynolds, Louisiana College signee Julie McKay (MACJC Academic All-State, MACJC All-State), Keri "Faith" Johns (NJCAA Academic All-American, MACJC Academic All-State), Jaime Benge, Shannon Thompson, Katie Stewart (MACJC Academic All-State), Terri Hodges (MACJC Academic All-State), and Jennifer Thornton.

The Lady Wolves are looking for leadership and solid contributions from returning sophomores Britney Cannon and Dallas Jackson, both of Wesson; Samantha Roberts and Ariel Patterson, both of Summit; Damien Cliburn of New Hebron, Heather Phillips of Brookhaven, and Haley Vaughan of Natchez.

Fourteen freshmen joining the Lady Wolves in 2011 include Dana McCook of Harrisville, Elizabeth Cudjoe of Takoradi, Ghana; Brooks Turner of Natchez, Lauren Marbury of Florence, Amanda Berry, Whitney Ketchum, Alfredreka Austin, and Casey Brumfield, all of McComb; Emily Zumbro of Bude, Martha Silva of Theodore, AL; Dava Berong of Wesson, Christy Wright and Shakendrea Williams, both of Crystal Springs, Allison Spears of Magnolia, and Ariale Walters of Hattiesburg.

The South Division looks to be strong this season with perennial powerhouse Mississippi Gulf Coast and Jones County looking to be the top contenders.

Lady Wolves look to continue winning tradition

The Lady Wolves had a memorable 2009-2010 season winning the MACJC South Division, runners-up in the MACJC State Tournament, NJCAA Region 23 Tournament Champions, and qualifying for the NJCAA National Tournament in Salina, Kansas.

The Lady Wolves lost their opening round of the national tournament, but came back to win the next three games capturing the NJCAA Consolation Bracket to finish 7th in the national tournament.

The Lady Wolves (31-2) were ranked No. 3 in the final regular season NJCAA National Poll.

Head Coach Young currently sits in second place in career victories among active women's basketball coaches in the NJCAA.

With one of the top scorers and rebounders from 2009-2010 returning and a talented group of transfers and freshmen signed, the Lady Wolves look to continue their tradition of excellence. Coach Young is excited about the possibilities of the upcoming season with the return of four sophomores and a talented group of newcomers. With a lot of hard work, dedication and teamwork we should be able to compete at a high level in the tough MACJC conference and NJCAA Region XXIII.

Leading the way is NJCAA All-Region 23 forward Brandi Simmons. Simmons, a Murrah High School product, averaged 14 points and 7.9 rebounds as well as being named MACJC Second Team All-State. Also returning are Kristin Newsome (Forest Hill High School) who averaged 2.2 points and 2.5 rebounds per game, Paige Webster (Franklin County High School) who averaged 4.5 points and 2 rebounds per game, and KeeKee Gallagher (South Pike High School) who played in 17 games for the Lady Wolves.

Transferring from Baton Rouge Community College are Kiare Etienne (Jennings High School, LA) who averaged 15.8 points and 4.8 rebounds, Sedreka Plummer (Lafayette High School, LA) who averaged 6.2 points and 4.2 rebounds, and JaQuandria (G.G.) Williams (New Iberia High School) who averaged 7.4 points and 5.6 rebounds per game.

The freshman class includes Ann Shelby Davis of Wesson High School, Hannah Knouse of West Lincoln High School, Keosha Bradley of Natchez High School, Jasmine Belton of Natchez High School, Anastasia Hutchins of Natchez High School, Chantell Miller of Franklin County High School, Tiffany Sims of Mendenhall High School, and Alexis Stirgus of Vicksburg High School.

These incoming freshmen will have some big shoes to fill in replacing a standout group of graduating sophomores. Lost to graduation are NJCAA First Team All-American, MACJC All-Star, MACJC All-State, All-Region 23, NJCAA National All-Tournament Team and University of Southern Mississippi signee Rachel Vigers; NJCAA Third Team All-American, MACJC All-Star, All-State, All-Region 23 and Southeastern Louisiana University signee Latoria Holder; William Carey University signee Shareka Hunt; Southern University New Orleans Nadia Collins, and Rokeiya Adams.

Transfers hope to boost Wolves in 2010-2011

The 2009-2010 season was a lesson in adversity for the Wolfpack basketball team. Head Coach Dennis Sims was hospitalized after coaching the team's first nine games and Assistant Coach Cliff Furr took over leadership of the team from that point on. A tough season and the 6-17 record that the Wolves finished with are now in the rear view mirror as the coaching staff looks forward to guiding a promising group of incoming players in 2010-2011.

The Wolves will return on two players from last years' team. Guard Marcus Hooten, 6-2, was the Wolves leading scorer last season averaging 23 points per game, sixth best in the nation for junior college basketball. Hooten was named NJCAA First Team All-Region 23 and MACJC First Team All-State. A strong guard with a nose for taking the ball to the basket, Hooten led the nation in free throws attempted.

The other returning player for the Wolves is 6-3 guard Blaine Roberts. Roberts averaged 5 points a game, played in all 23 contests, and came on at the end of the year as a full time starter. His two free throws with .7 seconds left on the clock would end up being the difference in a thrilling 79-77 victory over Hinds on Feb. 15. Roberts excels not only on the court but also in the classroom where he finished his freshman year with a perfect 4.0 grade point average.

With only two returning sophomores the Wolves hope that quintuplet of junior college transfer will provide strong play and leadership in 2010-2011.

Transferring from Angelina College (TX) are 5-11 guard Ernest Wafer and 6-5 forward Antonio Holmes. Wafer, a product of Cypress-Springs High in Houston, played in 2008-2009 for Angelina. The athletic Holmes is a product of Zwolle High in northwest Louisiana where as a senior in 2009 he led the Hawks to the state title while garnering MVP honors.

The biggest addition to the upcoming team is center Olatunji Kosile. Kosile, a native of Nigeria, stands 6-11 and comes to Co-Lin from Northwest Florida State College in Niceville, FL. Kosile, who goes by "TJ", will be counted on to use his extreme length as a rebounder and shot blocker. Desmond McCoy, a graduate of Ridgeland High School, rounds out the group of junior college transfers. McCoy, a 6-4 forward, suited up last season at Fort Scott Community College (KS). A strong, wide shouldered rebounder, McCoy has already made an impression on the coaching staff with his work ethic.

Joining the six sophomores on the team will be a talented group of freshman. Freshman signees include 6-3 guard Jake Reed from Brookhaven Academy, 6-8 center Austin Everett from Enterprise Attendance Center, 6-2 guard Ryan McKinley from Hattiesburg High School, 6-3 forward Chris Miller, 6-5 forward Jamal Asberry, and 6-3 guard Maurice Williams, all of Vicksburg High School, and 5-9 guard Jordan Stentiford of Madison Ridgeland Academy.

Talented freshmen expected to make impact

After two consecutive losing seasons, the Wolfpack look for improvement in 2011 with a mix of veterans and a talented freshmen class. Lack of pitching depth last season left Co-Lin with an overall record of 17-29 and a South Division record of 5-18.

The keys to the success in 2011 will be how quickly the freshmen adjust to college play and finding the right team chemistry.

The Wolfpack pitching staff will be made up of a mix of veterans and incoming freshmen.

Lost to graduation are MACJC First Team All-State outfielder Kendall Logan (46th round draft pick of the Atlanta Braves/Jackson State University signee) and MACJC Second Team All-State centerfielder/left hand pitcher Jeff DeBlieux (University of South Alabama signee). Also graduating were pitcher/third baseman Matthew Freeman, catchers Ryne Tutor and Tyler Hue, shortstop Luke Brumfield, first baseman Cable McMinn, pitchers Mitch Tidwell and Marshun Hall.

Returning players include catcher Zach Williams (.348 avg.), first baseman Conner Oakes (.320 avg.), shortstop Edmund Cheatham (.323 avg.), third baseman Bud Britt (MACJC Second Team All-State, .372 avg., 47 RBIs), Seth Avants (.143 avg.), redshirt catcher/infielder Steven Capistran (surgery), and outfielders Patrick Ferguson (.235 avg.), Jesse Shows, and Tyler Reeves (.304 avg.).

Veteran pitchers include right hand relievers Andrew Lee who had elbow surgery in April (5.83 ERA, 1-0 record) and Drew Weaver (6.67 ERA, 5-4 record), starting left hand pitcher Ryan Kennedy (7.75 ERA, 2-4 record) and left hand reliever Ben McDowell (11.85 ERA, 0-2 record).

New faces on the pitching staff include right hand pitchers Tyler Copeland of Enterprise-Clarke (MHSAA All-Star), Ben Boone of Copiah Academy (MAIS All-Star, MAIS All-State), Tripp Jolly of Brookhaven Academy (MAIS All-Star, MAIS All-State), TJ Floyd of Loyd Star (MHSSA All-Star), Cody Wall of Clarkdale, Kelsey Chapman of Tara High School (LA), Colton Laird of Franklin County, Zac Ferguson of Northeast Jones (MHSSA All-Star), Chandler Ramsey of Canton Academy (MAIS All-Star), and Raymond Winter of Brother Martin (LA). Redshirt right hand pitcher Brandon Jones will be available for duty this season after missing 2010 due to elbow surgery.

Incoming left hand pitchers include Josh Wages of Richland High School, Devon Whitbey of Milton High School (Florida Panhandle All-Star), and Dehendret Collins of Franklin County (MHSAA All-Star).

A talented group of freshmen that will be vying for positions this season includes infielders Willie Buckley (MHSAA All-Star, MHSAA All-State) and Lane Stephens, both of Lawrence County; Cody Smith of Loyd Star, Zac Ferguson of Northeast Jones (MHSAA All-Star), Devon Whitbey of Milton (FL) High School (Florida Panhandle All-Star), catchers Dillon Lee of Lawrence County and Mississippi State red-shirt transfer Colby Byrd of Brookhaven Academy (MAIS All-State, MAIS All-Star).

Outfielders include Ben Boone of Copiah Academy (MAIS All-Star, MAIS All-State),

Youth and pitching will lead Lady Wolves

The Lady Wolves will only return a few familiar faces for the 2011 season. Head Coach Allen Kent only has three starters returning from last year's 30 win squad.

"At this point, we have 12 freshmen coming in, our largest signing class ever," said head coach Allen Kent. "In addition to youth, they primarily also come from very small schools. The vast majority of our in-district players hail from 1A or 2A schools. It's a matter of doing your homework and getting the best available players out there, no matter what size school they come from."

Returnees include All-Region 23 pitcher Bethany Pinkston of Brusly, LA, Second Team All-State first baseman/catcher Haley Sones of Loyd Star, catcher Lakin Lockhart of Live Oak, LA and outfielder Erika Rutland of Brookhaven (Enterprise).

Incoming freshmen include a quartet from Loyd Star Attendance Center, pitcher Brooke Delaughter, infielder Carrie Moak, outfielders Emily Smith and Leah Britt. Infielder Kacey Smith of Franklin County, outfielder Stevie Ann Wright of Brookhaven High, outfielder Ashley McCaffery of Bogue Chitto, utility Ashley Bounds of Magee, outfielder Bobbie Cochran and twin sister, infielder Jamie Cochran of Seminary, pitcher Sarah Anthony of Live Oak, LA and infielder Tammy Alford of Fisher High School in Lafitte, LA.

Pinkston looks for some much needed help in the circle. Injuries last year forced Pinkston to shoulder the majority of the workload.

"Bethany did a great job for us last year, giving us a chance to win nearly every time she stepped out there," said Kent. "However, we are looking forward to her having not having to throw as much, keeping our staff fresh down the stretch."

Pinkston posted a 29-12 record and a 1.75 ERA. She set the school record for strikeouts with 304 and wins with 29.

Delaughter comes in with a state championship title under her belt.

"We look for her to continue to improve on her spins and movement pitches," said Kent.

Anthony brings depth to the pitching staff. Her junior and senior seasons were very successful, making it deep into the playoffs. She also has extensive summer travel ball experience.

Sones is the lone returning infielder from last season. She returned from shoulder surgery and shared some time at catcher with Lockhart last season. Sones lead the team in RBI (27) and triples (5) and was second in batting average (.409), hits (63) and doubles (12) as a freshman.

Lockhart was very solid behind the plate last season, boasting an exceptional arm. She also hit for a .305 average with 25 RBI. She lead the team in walks and sacrifices.

Rutland saw action in 27 games and hit for a .279 average.

Like always, the South Division will be a battle from top to bottom. Regional champions East Central returns most of their starters. Region runner-up Mississippi Gulf Coast returns another strong squad. Pearl River finished fourth in the division and won the State Tournament. Jones will be vastly improved. Southwest beat South Champion Gulf Coast 3 out of 4 last year and continues to improve, losing several close games last year. Hinds has an outstanding district and will always be tough.

"As usual, we will be a fairly small team, relying on speed and defense, rather than home runs," Kent said. "We have five girls who can slap, so that will be a different look for us."

The Lady Wolves dealt with injuries the entire 2010 season. Staying healthy will be a big key to success in 2011. Another key will be how quickly the freshmen adapt to the speed of the college game.

Lady Wolves have more depth and experience in 2011

After finishing the 2010 season the NJCAA's No. 3 Academic Team of the Year and with a solid 8-3 record, the Lady Wolves will look to a strong class of freshmen in 2011.

Coach Holli Pepper has several freshman with a lot of tennis experience, just not at the collegiate level.

Incoming freshmen include Alex Lea of Brookhaven, who represented Mississippi at USTA Southern Tournaments. She was Brookhaven's MVP her junior year and was District and State Champion. Macie Case and Ansley Schimmel, both of Wesson, were State Finalists in doubles in 2010. Case was the team's MVP 2007-2010 and Schimmel was MVP in 2009 and 2010.

Leah Manoley of Adams County Christian School was District champion in singles and doubles. Kristen Hall of West Lincoln and Jeaneast Lofton of Loyd Star were both District finalists.

Also joining the Lady Wolves are Hannah Calcote of Lawrence County and Katherine Scarborough of Franklin County.

Anchoring the 2011 team are Katie Beth Case of Brookhaven (No. 2 singles/No. 1 doubles in 2010, MAIS State AA Champion) and Nicole Magee of Magee (No. 3 singles/No. 2 doubles in 2010, MAIS South State Runner-Up).

"Our strength this year should be our team depth," said Pepper.

Lost to graduation are Heather Huff (No. 4 singles/No. 2 doubles) and Mary Catherine McDonnial (NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American, No. 5 singles/No. 3 doubles), both of Brookhaven, and Rosa Young of Crystal Springs

(No. 1 singles/No. 1 doubles).

Pepper begins her sixth year as women's tennis coach. A graduate of Co-Lin, she was a member of the 2002 MACJC State and NJCAA Region 23 Championship Team. Pepper won the state championship at No. 1 doubles and No. 2 singles. In 2001 she won the state championship at No. 4 singles and No. 2 doubles. She was a NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American in 2002 and inducted in Co-Lin's Hall of Fame.

She played No. 2 doubles and No. 3 singles at Mississippi College where she was team captain. She received the Choctaw Award and was named American Southwest Conference All-East First Team, All-ASC Tournament First Team, Newcomer of the Year, ASC Eastern Player of the Week and Academic All-ASC Team.

Wolfpack will have to reload in 2011

Once again, Coach Mike McIntyre's team achieved another successful season as they finished fourth in the MACJC State and NJCAA Region Tournament and as the NJCAA's No. 4 Academic Team of the Year. The Wolfpack finished the season with a 12-3 record.

The 2011 team will have big shoes to fill with the loss of five out of six starters.

Sophomore Nico Osorio of Bogota, Columbia (Belhaven University signee), was a State Finalist in No. 1 singles. He and doubles partner Reed Rodgers of Vicksburg were State Finalists in No. 2 doubles. Rodgers was a State Quarter finalist at No. 4 singles. Both were named MACJC Second Team All-State.

Fellow Colombian Chicho Chaves (Belhaven University signee) and his partner Reilly Miller of Brookhaven were State Semi-Finalists in No. 1 doubles. Both were State Semi-Finalist in singles, Chaves at No. 2 and Miller at No. 3.

Also lost to graduation is No. 3 doubles/No. 6 singles Colby Bass of Bude (NJCAA Academic All-American).

Returning players include Joey Shelton of Franklin County (No. 5 singles in 2010 and No. 3 doubles, soccer player), Jon McLeod of Simpson County (saw time at No. 3 doubles in 2010), Levi Weeks of Lawrence County (reserve player in 2010, slowed by injury, soccer player), and Blaine Roberts of Brookhaven (reserve player in 2010, basketball player).

The team will depend heavily on the incoming freshmen class that includes "world-class" players Marko Knezevic and Mario Huljev, both of Zadar, Croatia; John Calcote, Taylor Everett, and Josh Dunn, all of Brookhaven; Chris Haley of Lawrence County, and Grayson Erwin of Simpson County (brother Zach played for Co-Lin).

McIntyre's career dual match coaching record is 432-92 in 32 seasons with six State, four NJCAA Regional Team Championships, and 10 team Runners-Up titles. His teams have accumulated over 72 individual State and Regional titles and 13 teams ranked in "National Top 25."

The Wolfpack was the National Champion Academic-Team-of-the-Year in 2002, 2005, 2007 and 2008 and Runners-Up in 2003, 2004, 2006 and 2009.

Talented freshman class to boost Wolfpack

With five members of the 2009 State Championship team returning, Coach Ronny Ross was looking for big things in 2010. But things didn't work out quite the way he thought as the Wolfpack finished third in the MACJC State Tournament and fourth in the NJCAA Region 23 Tournament.

There were some bright spots including a first place finish in the MACJC fourth event hosted by Northeast Mississippi Community College in Corinth.

Sophomore Derin Petite took medalist honors in the first event of the season hosted by Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College. Petite claimed fourth place honors and was named to the All-Tournament Team in the second event of the season hosted by East Central Community College in Forest.

Sophomore Clay Price finished tied for seventh place at the State Tournament and was named to the All-Tournament Team.

Lost to graduation were Petite, Price, Jake Smith, Donnie McFarland, and Bradley Boykin.

Returning to the 2011 team are Berry Givens, Ben Goff, and Bennett Ruschewski.

Ross has signed seven freshmen that should boost the golf program for the next few years. Freshmen include Justin Danice of Ocean Springs (kicker/punter for the football team), Payne Collins of Monroe, LA; Colby Woodward of Columbia, Keaton Stamps and Logan Parish, both of Prentiss; David Nichols of Monticello, and Justin Foreman of Liberty.

"Coming off of a disappointing season, this could be one of the most talented group I have ever had," said Ross. "I'm very excited about the upcoming season. Competition for the team should be close."

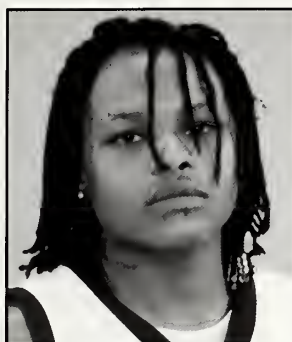

Ross begins his 11th year as Co-Lin's golf coach. He also serves as director of golf operations at Wolf Hollow Golf Course. He led the 2009 Wolfpack golf team to their first-ever MACJC Division II State Championship and was named 2009 MACJC Coach of the Year.

Former Co-Lin football player and coach A.J. "Red" Mangum was inducted into the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges Sports Hall of Fame in April. Mangum of Hattiesburg was head football coach at from 1954 to 1960. He is a Simpson County native and played guard for the Wolfpack in 1941-1942.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Co-Lin student-athletes participated in several community service projects in 2009-2010. The Lady Wolves soccer team assisted at the 5K Breast Cancer Run during the Ole Brook Festival in Brookhaven. The Wolfpack football team read to Bogue Chitto Elementary students and the baseball team read to Wesson Attendance Center elementary students.

A reading program was established for Co-Lin Daycare students with the football, golf, baseball, softball, men's and women's soccer and tennis teams, cheerleaders, and Blue Wave Show Band all participating.

(Top right) Katie Stewart presents autographed softballs to students at the Co-Lin Daycare. (Above left) Fred Tillman (left) and Larry Banks read to students at Bogue Chitto Elementary School. (Middle right) Center fielder/left hand pitcher Jeff DeBlieux reads to students at Wesson Attendance Center. (At right) Lady Wolves softball and soccer players from left, Holli Smith, Katie Stewart, Erica Rutland, Keri Johns, and Terri Hodges assisted at the Breast Cancer 5K Run.

Brandon Belanger

Brandon Belanger of Houston, Texas is being honored for his achievements in baseball. He is a 1998 graduate of Co-Lin, where he was selected as an MACJC All-State player, MACJC All Region, NJCAA All-American and an NJCAA Academic All American. He set the single season strikeout record in 1998 and came in second in the country. He also played in the Mississippi Junior College All Star Game.

After Co-Lin, Belanger played at Tulane University. He was selected as First Team All-Conference USA, First Team All-Louisiana Team, First Team Louisville Slugger All-American, and MVP of the last Winn Dixie Showdown in the Superdome. He set both single season and career saves records at Tulane and was nominated for their Athletic Hall of Fame.

After Tulane, Belanger played two seasons for the San Diego Padres. He also played on a team in Idaho Falls, Idaho that won the Pioneer League Championship. He received Relief Pitcher of the Month twice during his time there.

Belanger currently serves as West U.S. Sales Director for Pernix Pharmaceuticals, Inc in Houston. He and his wife, Angie Mullins Belanger, also a Co-Lin graduate, have three sons, Brock, 7, Brody, 4, and Brady, 3.

Colby Calcote

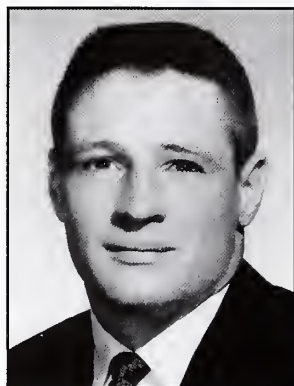

Colby Kent Calcote of Meridian is being honored for his achievements in baseball. He is a 1998 graduate of Co-Lin, where he was selected as an MACJC All-State player, NJCAA Academic All American, and was chosen for the All-Star JUCO Showcase. He broke the 1998 pitching strikeout record and was the winner of the MAC Halbrook Award.

After Co-Lin, he played at the University of Southern Mississippi where he was on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and received the Forrest General Sports Care Scholar Athlete Award. After signing with Southern Miss, Calcote's baseball jersey was retired at his former high school, Loyd Star.

Calcote is currently employed at The Service Company where he is the Director of Residential Services. He is married to Kathleen Valentine Calcote, and they have two children, Wilson Kent, 3, and Camille Katherine, 10 months.

John Madison Laird, Jr.

John Madison Laird, Jr. is being honored for his achievements in football. He is a 1963 graduate of Co-Lin, where he played center and was a kicking specialist. He was an All-State team selection and a Third Team All-American.

After Co-Lin, he signed with The University of Southern Mississippi, where he was a kicking specialist and holds the record for extra point percentage, 100 percent by hitting 29 of 29 PATs. He earned bachelor's, master's and Specialist degrees from Southern Miss. After college, he coached football at South Pike High School for five years. He went on to work as a football coach and junior high principal at Franklin County where he was selected Coach of the Year in the conference for three years. He was a well-loved teacher, coach and principal at Franklin County from 1970 until his death in 1987.

Laird was involved in his church and community and also enjoyed raising commercial cattle and soybeans. He is survived by his wife of 22 years, Brenda Sue Ratcliff, his children, Cassie Laird Janise and Mavis Laird Butler, and three grandchildren.

Katrina Dotson-James

Katrina Dotson-James is being honored for her achievements in basketball. She is a 1999 Co-Lin graduate where she led the team in scoring and rebounding during her freshman year and helped the Lady Wolves to win the South Division championship and finished as runner up in the MACJC State and NJCAA Region tournaments. Twice named MACJC Second Team All-State, Dotson-James was also named MVP for averaging 13 points and 6 rebounds a game her sophomore year. She led the Lady Wolves to a MACJC State title her sophomore year and again led the team to a runner-up finish in the NJCAA Region XXIII championship game, after which she was selected as a NJCAA Second Team All American.

After Co-Lin, Dotson-James signed with Southern University in Baton Rouge. As a junior she was named SWAC Newcomer of the Year and was named First Team All SWAC. She transferred to Alcorn State University, where she completed her bachelor's degree and is currently pursuing her master's degree at Grand Canyon University. She is a physical education teacher at Jefferson County Elementary School and is the head coach for the Jefferson County Junior High boys' basketball team, where she is the first female to coach boys' basketball.

Dotson-James is active in her church and community. She lives in Natchez with her husband, Lawrence and daughter, La'dazsha, 14..

Randy Thomas

Randy Thomas is being honored for his achievements in football. He is a 1996 graduate of Co-Lin where he was an All-State, All-Region and All-American selection as a two-year starter at tight guard. He was rated the best JUCO lineman in the state by the Clarion Ledger and the fifth-best player overall. After Co-Lin, Thomas transferred to Mississippi State University, where he started every game in his two years and quickly established himself as one of the Bulldogs' top offensive linemen. He earned First Team All-SEC honors and was also an SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

In 1999, he was drafted by the New York Jets where he started all 16 games during his rookie season. He is a veteran of 11 NFL seasons, having spent time with the Jets (1999-2002) and Washington Redskins (2003-09). He has played and started in 143 games in his career. In nine of his 11 seasons, Thomas has been a member of an offensive line that has blocked for a 1,000-yard rusher (Curtis Martin, New York Jets, 1999-02; Clinton Portis, Washington, 2004-05 and 2007-08; and Ladell Betts, Washington, 2006).

A severe triceps injury sidelined Thomas for much of the 2009 season, and he was released from the Redskins in March. Some questioned if the injury would end his career, however in August, Thomas signed with the Miami Dolphins.

Thomas and his wife, Teresa have four children, Brandi, Randy, Teri and Cameron.
